

- In the below bar chart I have taken product line to columns
- I have taken sales to rows
- Dragged sales to colors in marks so that according to sales the color changes for better visualization
- Dragged sales to label in marks to label sales each product line labels on each bar to understand visualization

- In the following pie chart I have dragged measure names to color to have different colors in visualization.
- I selected entire view for entire view of pie.
- Dragged measure values for to size to adjust size of pie.
- Selected some measures to display in pie.

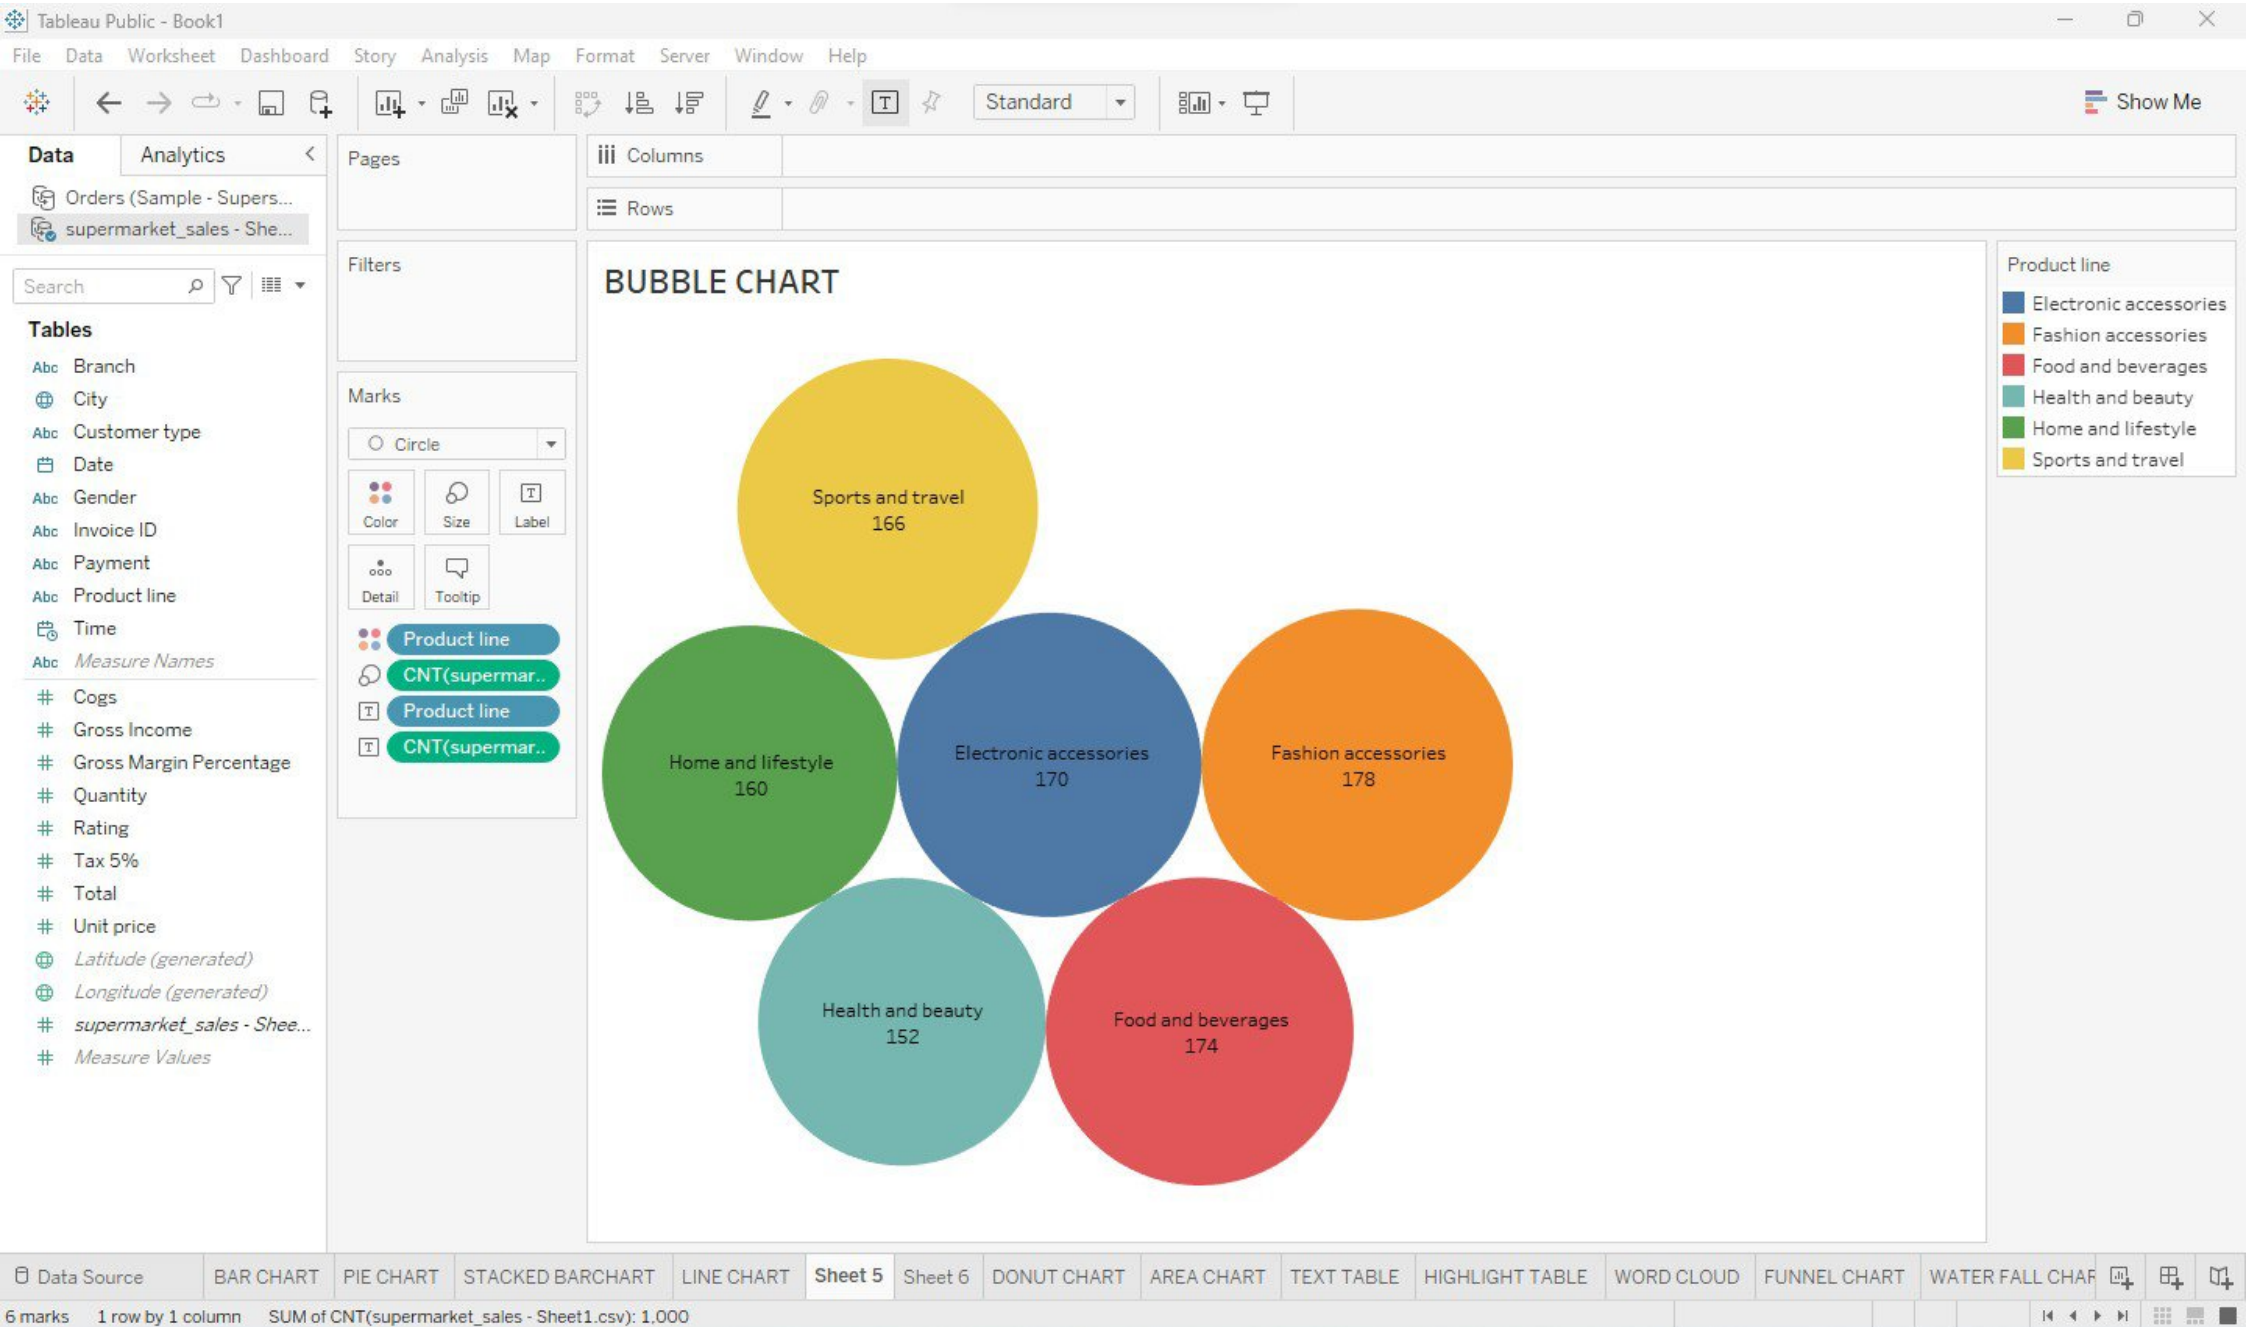

- In the following line chart I have taken product line in columns
- Count of super market sales in rows
- Selected line ends in labels
- We can see visualization of sales through this line chart.

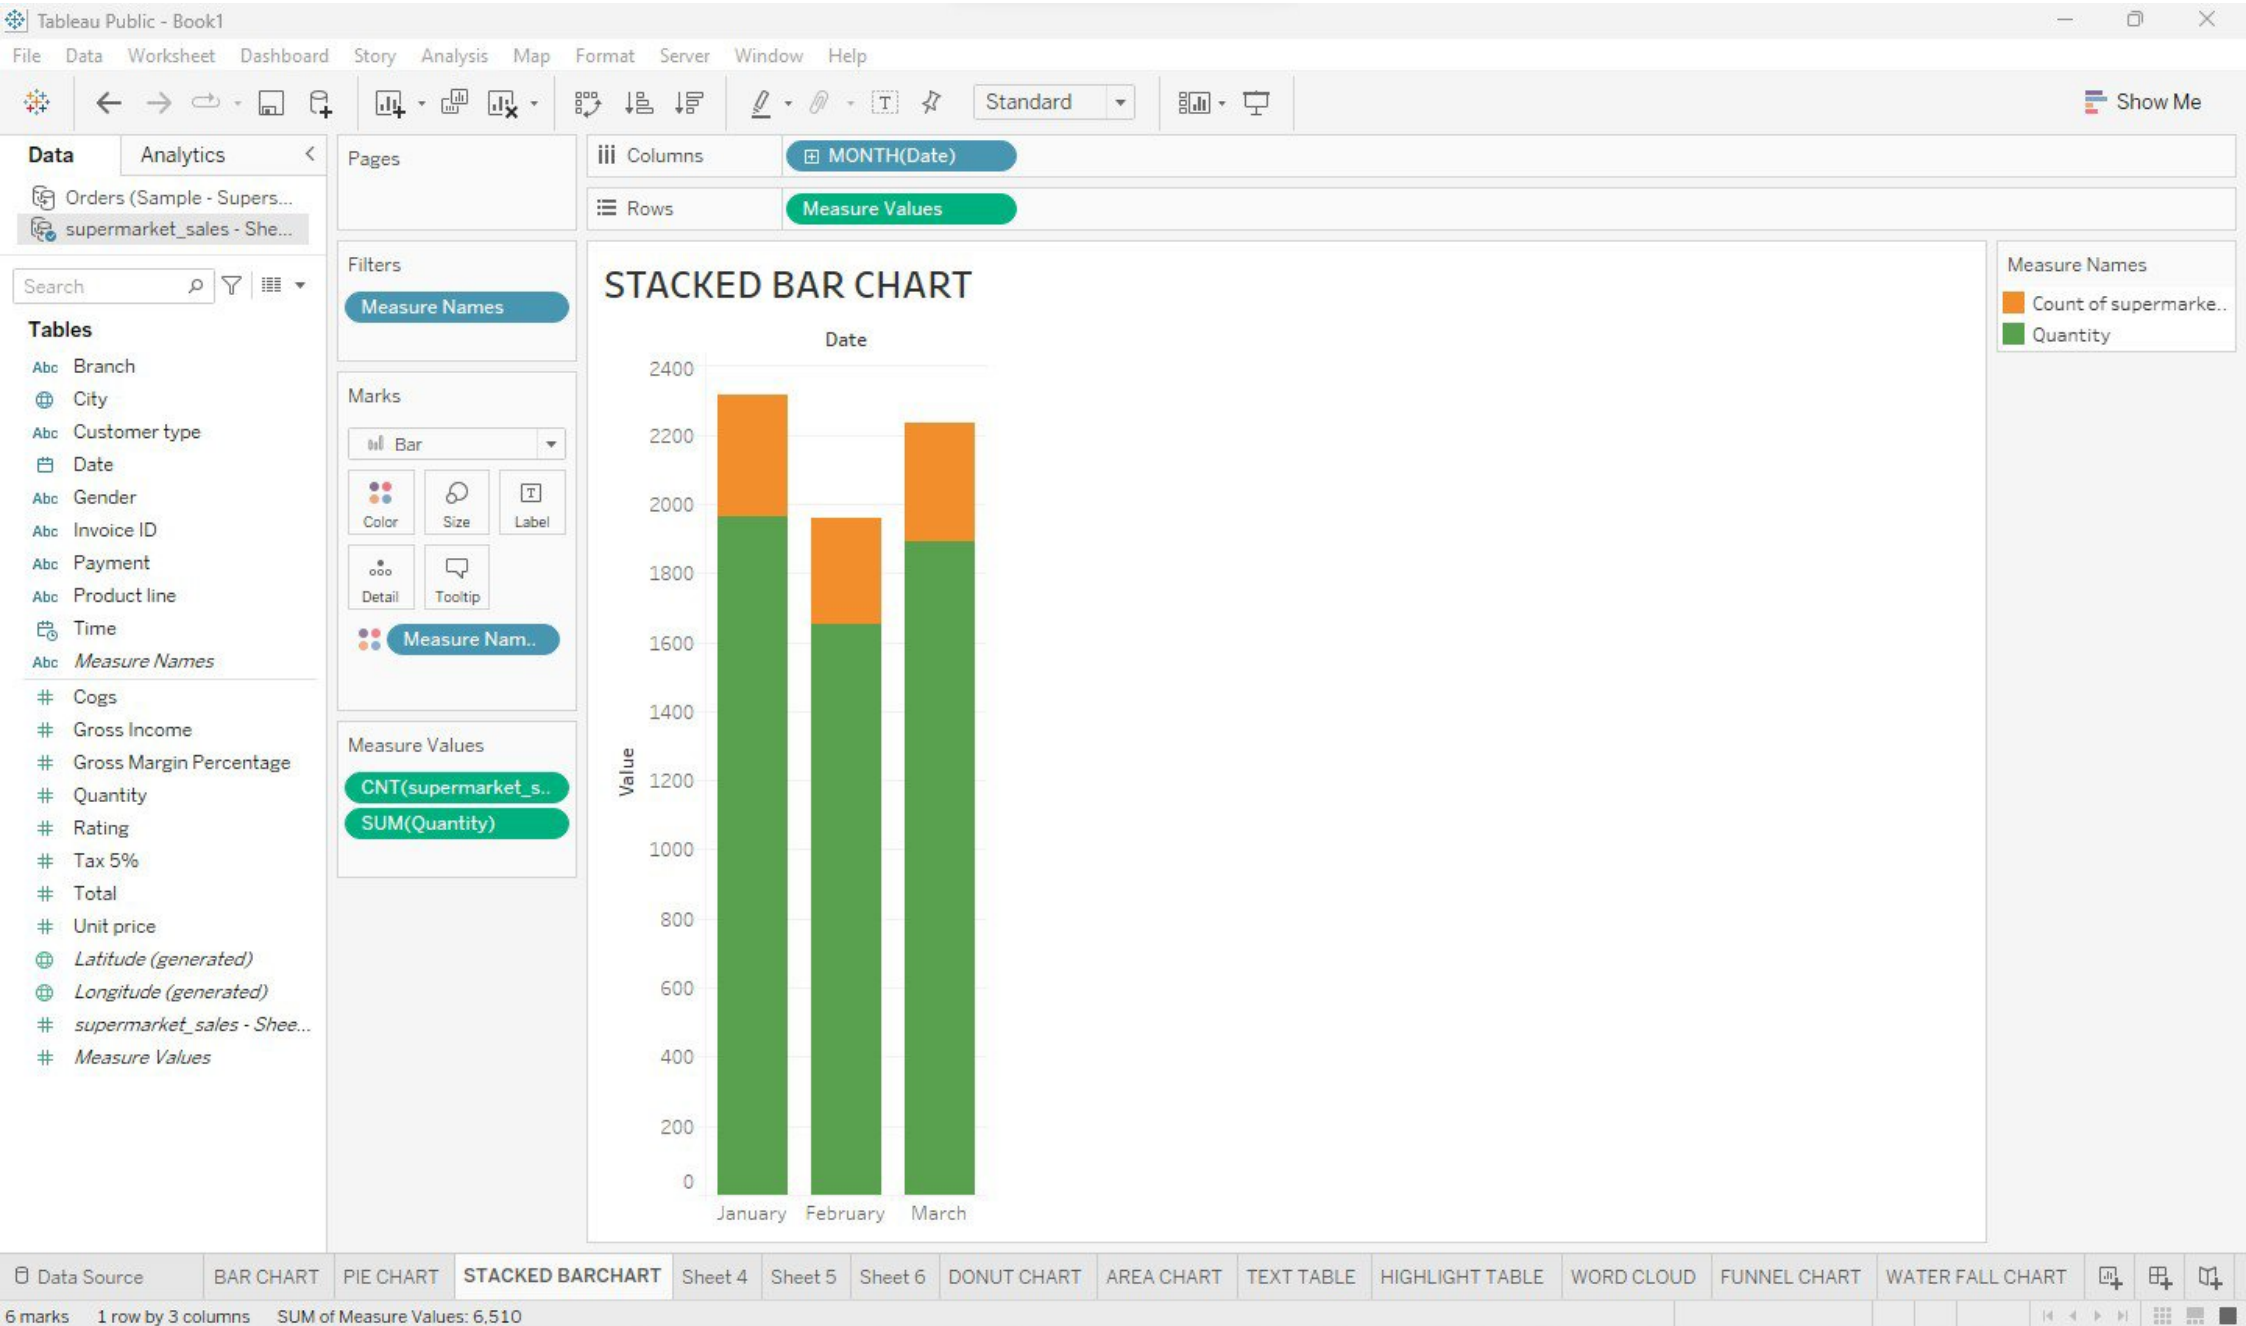

Search

- In the following bubble chart I have taken sales and product line
- Dragged product line to colors for different colors
- Dragged CNT(super market sales) to size and adjusted size
- Dragged product line and sales to label for labelling them on bubbles.

- In the following stacked bar chart I have taken date in column and selected month as it was only one year
- Taken measure values in rows
- Selected count of supermarket and quantity which are shown in different colors
- Dragged measure names to colors to have different colors in visualization

37°

Search

ENG
IN

16:18
29-02-2024

